PARIS MAN VICTIM OF HOLD-UP.

"Stick 'em up and keep 'em there," was a stern command which greeted Henry Worthington, of Vine street, Sunday night, while passing through a lonely spot in the city lot near Lileston avenue.

Worthington had been making a social call at the home of his brother, James Worthington, on Lileston avenue, and returning home took the short cut through the city lot to reach Seventh street. As he neared a dark spot near a tool house he was suddenly confronted by a masked man, who, presenting a revolver in Worthington's face, commanded him to "stick-em-up." Worthington did not see the revolver at first and thought the man said "Howdy." But he realized his mistake when the highwayman pressed the cold muzzle of a revolver against his cheek and repeated his demand. A search of Worthington's pockets rewarded the thug with only 65 cents. He took this and after cautioning Worthington to make full speed ahead, and not look back, disappeared in the shadows.

Worthington hurried to police headquarters and related the story of his hold-up, but, as he was unable to give an accurate description of the hold-up man, the police have very little hope of making an arrest.

ENTRIES FOR Y. M. C. A. "FIELD MEET."

Students in eight or ten high schools of the Paris Y. M. C. A. district of Kentucky are coaching and preparing for the "Field Meet," to be held in Paris on May 5 and 6, under the auspices of the State Y. M. C. A. Entries in the events are expected to be complete today.

It is said that from 125 to 150 entries will be made in this "field meet," and plans are that the boys shall be guests of the citizens of Paris. L. F. Zerfoss, secretary of the Paris Y. M. C. A. district, is directing the work. The counties represented in the district are Bourbon, Harrison, Nicholas, Fleming, Montgomery, Bath, Powell, Rowan, Robertson, Mason and Menifee.

LODGE NOTES

At the recent meeting of Rail-bone Lodge No. 12, K. of P., the following were elected as representatives to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge, K. of P., in Lexington, on January 14: John Cahal, P. J. McCord, D. Y. L. Farley, Walter Blithe, Thomas Carmichael, N. E. Ecklar and Dr. Alvin Kiser.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ACTIVITIES.

Paris business men are centering their interest on the first Commercial Club noon luncheon, which will be held at the Hotel Windsor, today, from 12:10 to 1:10.

This will be the first of a series designed to bring the business men together and to provide good talks on business matters of interest to the citizens and business men of Paris. Many tickets have been reserved, and a good time is expected. A jazz orchestra will furnish music during the meal, after which short talks will be made by speakers. The noon luncheons will be continued at frequent intervals until summer and, although the first luncheon is limited to fifty, it is expected arrangements will be made to seat one hundred or more thereafter.

The third public forum of the Commercial Club was held recently at the Y. M. C. A. Addresses by Dr. J. T. C. Noe, of the University of Kentucky, was preceded by a musical program, including songs by Clay Sutherland and Miss Rebecca Collier, and xylophone numbers by Dr. W. J. Kiff, accompanied on the piano by Miss Patsy Clark. Following the address a discussion was held in which the subject of parks and playgrounds, Sunday movies and a city band were discussed. The meeting was in charge of Edward H. Gorey, president. Dr. Noe's address was a poetic interpretation of the American home. Dr. Noe read several of his poems.

Harry Jivancoll, editor of the Lexington Leader, will be the headliner at the Commercial Club noon luncheon to be held at the Windsor Hotel today. W. O. Hinton, of Paris, will act as toastmaster. Mr. Jivancoll will be accompanied to Paris by automobile party of Lexington business men and Board of Commerce members, who will be special guests at the luncheon.

BARN BURNING SEEMS TO BE EPIDEMIC

Three barns in the west end of Wilmore, the property of Asa Jewell, of Lexington, and John McClure, Wilmore, were destroyed early Tuesday night along with 25 or 30 horses, 6 mules and quantity of feed. The loss to the barns is estimated at approximately $10,000, one-third of which was covered by insurance. The feed housed in the barns was valued at $1,000.

A large barn belonging to Chas. Deitric, about four miles south of Nicholasville, was destroyed by fire Monday night. The barn contained 100 bushels of hemp seed, a quantity of hay, feed, implements, harness and an automobile. The loss is estimated at $10,000, partly covered by insurance.

Fire thought to be of incendiary origin destroyed a tobacco barn on the farm of Fox Caldwell, two miles from Danville Wednesday night. The barn was built at a cost of $4,000 last summer. Insurance of $2,000 was held. Twenty thousand pounds of tobacco, the property of E. P. Wooldridge and Devine brothers, stored in the barn was destroyed. Devine brothers carried no insurance and only a small amount was carried by Mr. Wooldridge.

A tobacco barn, containing about 2,000 pounds of stripped leaf, located on the New Liberty road about two miles from Lexington, belonging to Ed. White, of 332 Mary street, was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday night. The barn valued at $1,400, was practically new and had insurance of $1,000. There was $275 insurance on the tobacco.

Joseph Arrington, a tobacco farmer, living near Gallopollis, reported that his tobacco barn, containing 10,000 pounds of barley leaf tobacco, had been burned by an incendiary.

Authorities believe the fire was started by persons opposed to the sale of the 1920 crop because of prevailing low prices.

Arrington was holding his tobacco for higher prices. He never has been threatened by night riders, he said.

UNITED AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS' SEPARATION

That was a joyful meeting of brother and sister at Pellicy, O., on January 12, when Stanley Hollar met his sister after a separation of twenty-five years. They were separated when they were six and four years old, respectively. The late J. H. Vaughn took the brother to rear at his home in the Ruddled Mills vicinity, Bourbon county. The sister was adopted by a family of the name of Canary, and she was reared near Louisville. Each had been reported to the other dead, but for the past few years had been endeavoring to find some trace of one another. Mr. Hollar, or Vaughn, as he is known in this section, had been reported to his sister as having died when he was sixteen years old. The joy of their reunion can be better imagined than described.

RED CROSS LIFE-SAVING CORPS

Honorary Service Medals for proficiency and honorable service in the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps have been awarded by the Bureau of First Aid of the Red Cross to Harvey Hamilton, Columbus Athletic Club, Columbus, O.; Gustave L. Stecher, Woodward High School, Cincinnati; Capt. Frank Mills, Cincinnati Gymnasium & Athletic Club, Cincinnati; E. C. Buss, Greencastle, Ind.; Ed. S. Conner, Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, O., and W. B. Coughlin, Y. M. C. A., Toledo, O.

Each medal winner has completed two years' enlistment in the Red Cross Life Saving Corps and has given at least 200 hours of voluntary service in that organization.

February 1 is the seventh anniversary of the formation of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps, at which time it is planned to present the medals in connection with public demonstrations of life saving.

Keen interest is being aroused throughout Lake Division of the Red Cross—Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky—in the organization of new corps. Boy Scouts in many communities taking an active part in this work.

Capt. W. P. Clyne, Director of Life Saving in Lake Division, has just issued a warning to Life Saving Corps to take all possible steps to prevent thin ice accidents.

Danger signs, life buoys or lines and resuscitation charts should be placed at dangerous ponds, rivers or creeks, he points out, for drownings are known to recur from similar causes year after year.

Since the organization of the Red Cross Saving Corps deaths from drowning have been reduced 45 per cent.

THE TOBACCO MARKETS

Prices on the Paris tobacco market were slightly lower Thursday, notwithstanding the large amount of good tobacco on the floors. Sales were held on the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Co.'s floors Thursday and Friday mornings, and a slight improvement was noticed Friday in comparison with the sales of the previous day.

Friday afternoon sales were held on the floors at the New Independent Warehouse, and fair prices were realized. At the Independent House 136,320 pounds were, disposed of for a total of $21,027.89, an average of $13.44. This house sold during the week 535,850 pounds of tobacco for $70,678.63, an average of $13.03. Sales for the season at the Independent House are $95,865 pounds for $119,211.59, an average of $13.30.

Receipts were unusually large during the first part of the week, scores of wagons being lined up on the streets and packed into the driveways of the warehouses. The latter part of the week the amount of the incoming weed decreased very slightly. All the warehouses are crammed full with plenty to spare and another rush is predicted for this week. The fact that the low grade tobacco fail to pay the expenses of hauling and warehouse charges is tending to keep the worst stuff away from the market to a large extent.

The Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Co. sold yesterday in the Paris House 262,635 pounds for $4,077.51, an average of $16.78. The market showed considerable advance over last week's market. The sales will open to-day at the Independent House No. 2, and from there to the Bourbon House No. 3.

TWELVE PERSONS PERISH IN HOTEL FIRE.

Eleven persons were burned to death early Sunday morning in a fire which destroyed the Hotel Colonial, in Hoboken, N. J. Four others were badly burned and taken to a hospital where it was reported that they probably will not recover.

According to a statement by the hotel clerk, the fire started in the room of a guest who was out at the time. It is believed the guest left a lighted cigar or cigarette where it later set fire to drapery.

Two investigations will be started by the order of the Director of Public Safety. Police will look into the manner in which the hotel was being conducted and the fire department officials will seek to determine how the fire started.

All of the forty-six rooms except one were occupied at midnight, about ninety persons being in the building. One of the transient couples had just left when the night clerk discovered that the room they had occupied was on fire.

OH, YUM, YUM! THIS READS GOOD.

Editor Hiram Duley, in the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, pays the following tribute to "the good old days."

"In the 'good old times,' years ago, when all the sugar maples had not been cut down to make room to grow tobacco, a spell of weather like we have had this January would have been counted fine for the sugar crop. But now, alas! those old 'sugar camps' are only memories for us older people—the younger generation knows nothing about the old camp with its glowing furnace and its steaming kettles, with the Irish potatoes roasted to perfection in the hot embers of the furnace and the country bacon broiled to the queen's taste on the live coals or on a forked twig in the blaze, and eaten for a midnight lunch, while all about could be heard the 'drip' of the sweet juice of the maple sap into the hewn-out blue-ash trough, assuring a supply for the next day's boiling. To quote a slang expression, 'them was the happy days.'"

WILL PRICES BE LOWERED?

The people of Bourbon county who are not availing themselves of the present opportunity to buy needed merchandise at the low prices now prevailing are, we believe, making a great mistake. We base our belief upon the fact that from all indications prices are going to be higher in the future.

We know the people have been waiting for lower prices, and we believe they were justified in doing so, but as they are not in a position to know, our object is to sound a warning that they may wait too long, as the merchants are sacrificing their merchandise at the present times in order to buy their spring stocks. We quote the following from one of the leading trade journals:

"Leading authorities in merchandise are sure that prices in most commodities will increase later. They base this belief on the fact that everybody is down right to bedrock in the matter of supplies. People have been holding off on the purchase of clothing, of household necessities and almost everything else. The time soon will come when they have to replenish their supplies, and this inevitably is going to mean a buying rush. The price of labor is not being reduced to any great extent. Neither is the cost of raw material coming down appreciably."

"It would seem, therefore, that the person who builds great hopes on things falling much lower, or who is holding off in his purchasing because of a belief that such a drop will come, is 'due for some disappointment.'"

The only reason we can see for the present low prices is because the merchants are selling below cost in order to get money to pay for their spring stock, and when these are placed on the market within the next few weeks they must be sold at a profit, and, therefore, prices are very apt to be higher than they are at present.

MEETING OF BLUE GRASS DENTAL SOCIETY.

CHILDREN'S MATINEE SATURDAY GREAT SUCCESS

The Paris Grand was filled to its utmost capacity Saturday morning with a crowd of eager, laughing youngsters, and several hundred older people, all bent on enjoying the unusual privilege of attending a morning matinee. The occasion was the benefit performance given in the interest of the Herbert Hoover Relief Fund for the starving children of Europe. Besides the picture and musical program, in themselves one of the most enjoyable seen at this house for a long time, there was an added attraction. Miss Norma Tate, of Irvine, a charming little miss, a pupil of Mrs. Laura Spurr, of Lexington, gave a delightful character and costume dance, drawing the unqualified praise of all who witnessed it. Miss Tate is a graceful little charmer and her dancing was a revelation of what can be done in that line. She was accompanied to Paris by her mother, Mrs. Elmer Tate, of Irvine, and Miss Laura Spurr.

The entire proceeds of the entertainment, $150, were turned over to the Relief Fund. The clerical forces of the Louisville & Nashville in this city purchased 172 tickets which General Agent W. V. Shaw turned over to Mrs. Harriet Minkner, Visiting Nurse of the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League, who gave them to children who were unable to pay their own way into the theatre. Others throughout the city did the same thing, so that it was a very unfortunate child, indeed, who did not get to join in the fun and pleasure of the occasion.

WINCHESTER BOY MISSING

The city and county authorities have been asked to prosecute a search in this vicinity for Roy B. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Strother Martin, of the Wades Mill vicinity, between Winchester and North Middletown. The parents are very anxious to locate their son, who has been missing from home since the morning of Sunday, January 16. The following description has been sent out:

"Roy B. Martin left his home near Wade's Mill, Clark county, on Sunday morning, January 16. Description: Five feet, eleven inches in height; 17 years old, but looks older; wore a green suit of clothes, dark tan shoes, green cap, purple overcoat with red fox collar; misplaced thumb on left hand; dark hair and gray eyes. Notify Clay Hodgkin, Sheriff, Winchester, Ky."

HOW FAR OFF IS PROSPERITY?

Congress is doing but little cheese paring, and the appropriations for the year's business will doubtless exceed four billion dollars. Mr. Burleson's airplanes will be suspended, and mails will return to the railroad routes. The Shipping Board will be given equally reduced appropriations—and in these measures a few "measly millions" will be saved—if partially wrecking our new merchant marine for want of sufficient money to permit it to function is "saving." In any event burdensome taxes cannot be escaped in the present year. In Washington one watches the figures of the Treasury, the Federal Reserve Board, the results of the many surveys of agriculture, industry, labor, crop reports, etc. That forms the basis for identifying Government's relation to progress. The financial reports are very good, the situation with agriculture is equally bad—very bad. Over two million laboring men are unemployed. There are a lot of business smashes taking place, but the shelves of the nation are depleted—bare, in many cases. Factories must get busy. From the angle, therefore, of Federal vision, the situation is 50-50.

"Big business" chips in its voice to observe, from its cunning towers of industry and finance that "confidence is strong." And its prognostications are that in consequence there will be a revival of business activity. Government authorities are agreed with private institutions that the period of liquidation may about finished its work.

Just how correct the guesses may be, we cannot state—but a digest of all their predictions and prophecies, puts "Prosperity" still out at sea, and sailing towards American shores on a ship that will arrive from six weeks to six months. If she does not land somewhere within that broad interval of time, then every statesman, every prophet, and every son of a prophet, is very much mistaken in signs.

By No Means a Duce.

The speaker was energetically orating in behalf of a candidate for congress. "What we want," spoke up a man in the audience, "is a man from the rank and file as our representative; a man from the common people, not one of these dudes that don't know anything but how to wear a long-tailed coat." "And that is just exactly what my candidate is," the speaker came back; "one of the common people. And by no stretch of the imagination could you call him a 'duke.' Why, his idea of dressing up is to button his vest."

ORDER RESTORED IN U. S. SAMOA

Reporter and Naval Officer Try to Get Control of the Administration.

ODD MIXUP IS CLEARED UP

Governor, in Ill Health and Under Charges, Commits Suicide—Is Completely Absolved by Naval Court of Inquiry.

San Francisco.—American Samoa's beetle-inspecting chief of police is out of jail, and the judge, who has seven other jobs, is again holding court, according to advices from Tutuila. This change back to normal followed a naval inquiry which resulted in dissipating an attempt by a naval officer and a former newspaper reporter to control the naval administration of the American possession in the South Seas.

In furtherance of this attempt, the naval officer, Creed H. Boucher, lieutenant commander, and the ex-reporter, Arthur A. Greene, enlisted the support of Commander A. C. Kail, second in rank to Commander Warren J. Terhune, governor of the island. The three filed charges against Terhune and his administration, and finally Kail tried to send a wireless message to the navy department at Washington, branding his superior as insane.

Takes His Own Life.

With the message in front of him, Terhune, suffering from ill health, committed suicide. The pitiful part of this tragedy developed when the naval court of inquiry, already en route to Tutuila from Hawaii, absolved Terhune's administration of all charges, recommended the deportation of Greene, the court martial of Boucher and the removal of Kail from his post.

Among the charges filed against Terhune's administration was one that officials were drawing illegal salaries. J. Hurkin Mallo, native chief of police, and Judge A. N. Noble were especial targets of Boucher, Greene and Kail.

After Commander Terhune shot himself Kail became acting governor, and he jailed Mallo on charges that the chief of police had urged the natives to oppose the activities of Greene and Kail. Previously Boucher had alleged that irregularities of the Terhune administration included paying Mallo as "beetle inspector" as well as head of the police force, but that no beetles were inspected.

Judge Noble, who, besides being district judge, was secretary to the commandant, registrar of titles, secretary of native affairs, judge of the probate court, superintendent of education, associate member of the high court and vice president of the American Bank of Samoa, was charged by Boucher and Greene with being instrumental in alleged misuse of funds and authority. Kail closed Noble's court when the former became acting governor.

Board Sits Eight Days.

The board of inquiry sat for eight days. Testimony revealed that Boucher for 25 of his 85 days' service, was under suspension on three charges—carrying a pistol, attempting a mutiny and falsehood. Boucher's examination revealed that he posed as a secret service man without authority; publicly criticized the secretary of the navy and the President; insubordinately communicated with authorities in Washington in violation of regulations, and committed many other breaches of naval regulations.

Upon examination he declined to answer many questions on the ground that the answers would incriminate himself. He acknowledged that all charges he made were based upon hearsay and without investigation. It was revealed that documents were stolen from naval officers, but an attempt to introduce these by Greene, who acted as Boucher's counsel, was overruled by the board.

The testimony revealed also that Greene and Boucher created unrest among the natives in an effort to change the government and assume control for themselves. Their activities resulted in organization of natives into a "committee" which forwarded an appeal to President Wilson to remove Governor Terhune, and the native unrest was manifested by several fights with the American sailors.

Cutting a Watermelon in January.

Peru, Ind.—Mrs. George W. Cleveland of Logansport preserved a watermelon last August by covering the end of the stem with paraffin and on New Year's day, she brought it to Peru for dinner at her sister's home. The melon had a good flavor and was solid and sound.

Wide Yawn Fractured Fireman's Rib.

Allentown, Pa.—A sharp pain in one side caught Mark Beitler, a member of Rittersville fire company, when he indulged in a wide yawn in the hose-house. His suffering increased, so a physician was summoned and found one of Beitler's ribs fractured.

New York.—Notwithstanding reports of unemployment in New York city, a call for 8,000 snow shovelers, paid $5.20 for an eight-hour day, brought comparatively little response.

For the Family Table

We have an interesting story to tell about MILOLE, which is churned like butter, here in Cincinnati in our brand-new U. S. inspected churnery.

Although interesting, it is too long to be told in this issue but will be given by installments, one to appear in this paper each week.

In order to enable you to find the installment more easily, we will print the above picture of the carton each time. Watch for it—you are sure to be interested.

In the meanwhile ask your dealer about MILOLE. Proper arrangements will be made that he has it fresh from our churns at all times, and at nearly half the price paid for butter fat.

THE MYSTERY OF GIRLS' EARS.

Woman's crowning glory, her hair, receives at her hands the very best care. Every up-to-date girl prides herself on her tresses and how she wears them. The young lady of to-day is particularly fond of those little bunches of hair with which she conceals her ears. However, the ear muffs that Miss Flapperage wears now are nothing new. History relates that they were part of the head-dress of the French lady of the Restoration Period. Her coiffure was crowned with an amazing edifice of curls, combs, and lace. Now, in modern times, the hearty laughter that is accorded the witty wordings about ear puffs et cetera, screened in the popular "Topics of the Day" films, is evidence of the general interest in the subject of hair dressing. Whether or not you, dear reader, are interested in how the girls wear their hair, THE BOURBON NEWS feels sure that your laughter at the following paragraphs will penetrate even ear puffs:

"News item: The crushes on the Selby cars at 6 p. m. are getting to be something fearful. Last night a woman was so jostled that one of her ears became uncovered.—St. Paul News.

"It is our masculine notion that fashion might compromise and let the girls wear one ear each.—Toledo Blade.

"The way they dress now, some of the girls show about everything but their ears and their judgment.—Ohio State Journal.

"Perhaps it is to disprove the saying 'little children should be seen and not heard,' that modern girls decree their 'little ears shall hear but not be seen.'—Rutgers.

"There, little ear puff, don't you cry; you'll be a bustle, by and by.—Syracuse Herald.

"Will side whiskers ever come in fashion again?" asks a reader. Ans. "They're in fashion now. The girls are wearing 'em over their ears."—Regina (Sask.) Post.

"A donkey has two great big ears and keeps them standing in the air. I think a girl's donkey, too, who covers her's with wads of hair.—North Adams (Mass.) Herald.

"It is all right for a girl to imprison her ears under her hair, but she ought to let them out sometimes for exercise.—Galveston News.

"I notice Susie's wearing her hair a la Robert. 'How's that?' Bobbed.—N. Y. U. Alumnus.

"I'm sure crazy about my girl's puffs. 'Wear her hair pretty?' 'Nix, cigarette smoker.'—The Sun Dial.

"Speaking of ears, of course, you know why they've been keeping 'em covered.' 'Yes! Why?'—N. Y. Daily News.

NEWSPAPER MAN SEES WINTER RAINBOW.

While making the rounds early Friday morning with a NEWS carrier an attaché of the paper had the pleasure of witnessing a genuine well-defined rainbow. All the beautiful tints in rainbows in the summer were there and were well-defined. The beautiful visitation spanned the sky in a perfect arch from the horizon to horizon. The phenomenon was witnessed by several other citizens among them J. Simms Wilson, of Mt. Airy. This is an unusual sight for winter time, but was a beautiful one, nevertheless.

A writer in the Lexington Leader tells of a rainbow seen there Tuesday morning: "This morning the overhead sky was overcast and a trace of sleet, or rather frozen pellets, was falling, but the sun arose from a cloudless horizon. A rainbow, the widest of arch and extending from the northwestern horizon nearly to the zenith, glorified the heavens with one of the most perfect of such reflections ever witnessed.

"While rainbows are frequent when the sun shines through rain or mist, they are rare when occurring during precipitation of sleet or snow. It may be recalled that during the phenomenal winter of 1917-18 there appeared a rainbow during a flurry of snow, as also frequent thunder and lightning, but a rainbow in connection with sleet is rare, as is indeed.

"The rainbow is a promise spread in the skies to us all, but a rainbow in the morning is to a seer a warning; and what to us who are not such the near future will

As the result of an accident caused by a skidding automobile, Mrs. Claude Petree is confined to her bed at the Dr. Martha Petree Sanitarium, on Vine street.

Mr. and Mrs. Petree were riding in the machine when it skidded on the icy street, colliding with an automobile driven by Dr. J. S. Wallingford. Mrs. Petree was thrown from the machine, striking her head on the street. She was taken to the Petree Sanitarium, where an examination disclosed a slight fracture at the base of the skull, which physicians say is not of a serious nature. EDITORIAL FLINGS OF THIS, THAT 'EN 'TOTHER

The Thrift Magazine may be right when it says you cannot do as much work with a mean horse as you can with a good one, but the better your automobile the less work you do.

The ultimate consumer, sifting ashes in a shifting wind, wishes he had three wishes that would be granted. He'd wish to see every coal mine operator, every middleman and every retailer shifting ashes in a shifting wind.

One of Louisville's evangelists has christened that city "The Gateway to Hell." He should hate for the impression to go abroad that to get into hell one must go to Louisville. It might discourage emigration.

The other day we received a letter signed "You're Merryly." In these days when the boggy man is abroad that chirrup did us good. It may have been pose, it may even have been bluster, but it was a relief from those "Very Truly's" which are not.

The determined Mason county farmers, who are "sleeping on their arms" ready for nightriders, are within their rights, but peace in Kentucky, not war, is desirable. The peace officers must not leave to the farmers the task of "discouraging" the nightriders.

Here is the prayer offered up last week by some of the Paris High School students:

"Now I lay me down to sleep, I studied hard to do my best; Thank the Lord if I should die Before I wake— There'd be no more exams to take."

My chauffeur bent over the "gas" tank, The height of its contents to see; He lighted a match to assist him— Oh, bring back my chauffeur to me!

Those cigar manufacturers who wanted the tariff reduced on cigar wrappers certainly used very bad judgment when they gave out samples of "five-centers" to the members of the Ways and Means Committee.

A Louisville evangelist made a home thrust in his sermon recently. If on the stage the J. M. Barrie play could attain to great success

MATRIMONIAL.

—County Clerk Pearce Paton issued a marriage license Friday to Dillard Henn, 21, and Miss Clara Hall, 16, both of Gerdra Station, in Clark county.

—A marriage license was granted Saturday from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton, to Leslie H. Barlow, 23, of Carlisle, and Miss Leota Henderson, 21, of Mt. Sterling.

HENDERSON—BARLOW

—Miss Leota Henderson, of Mt. Sterling, and Leslie Barlow, of near Carlisle, secured license in Paris, Saturday, and were married Saturday afternoon at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. They were accompanied by the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Allie Henderson, of Mt. Sterling.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson of Mt. Sterling. The bridegroom is a son of W. T. Barlow, of near Carlisle, and is engaged in farming. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow will reside in Carlisle.

"Horace—Please do not phone me again. Father is cleaning and oiling his gun.—H. E."

Our contemporary, the Paris Democrat complains that pupils in the city schools are not getting an education, but learning to play basketball, football and to be "heroes." But just read this extract from the Louisville High School Notes in the Stanford Interior—Journal: "With great dispatch and dexterity the third and fourth H. H. RELIGIOUS.

—Dennis V. Snapp, of Paris, conducted a Sunday school workers' conference in the Park Avenue Methodist church, in Lexington, Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Snapp attended a meeting Saturday afternoon of the executive Sunday School Board of the Methodist church, held at the home of Mrs. G. E. Cameron, in Lexington.

—No services were held in St. Peter's Episcopal church, in this city Sunday. Rev. Walter S. Cain, the rector, was attending the anniversary celebration services of the Lexington Diocese, in Lexington. Rev. Cain was a guest during his stay of Mr. and Mrs. William Stuckey. The celebration continued through yesterday. The occasion was also made memorable by being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the consecration of the first Bishop of the Lexington Diocese, the Right Reverend Lewis M. Burton, D. D., and the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the first services held in Christ Church Cathedral, in Lexington.

With the addition of 5,000,000 more women to the voting lists in England, feminine voters there will now outnumber the men by probably more than one million.

WILL RAISE POTATOES INSTEAD OF TOBACCO

There is one garden plot in the Southeast part of Lexington that this spring will raise potatoes rather than tobacco. The desire of the owners is not so much to make a large profit, but to make at least some profit.

During 1920 a tobacco crop was tried as an experiment and a man was hired to raise it on the fifty-fifty basis. The weed was carefully attended and the crop, consisting of forty pounds and representing a lot of work, was taken to the market.

After bids were received and the crop was sold, there remained a net profit of twenty cents. Of this amount the tenant received ten cents and the two owners ten cents, or five cents each. And what can anyone buy with a nickel?

FEBRUARY and MARCH CASH SALE

The
J. T. Hinton
Company
PARIS, KY.
6th and Main
Paris, Ky.

A very general, though erroneous, impression, has gone abroad that merchandise of all kinds is to continue to drop in price indefinitely, and, moreover, that the factories have cut their prices very deeply. We do not pretend to know about other lines of merchandise, but we do claim to know about our own. We wish to call your attention to

A FEW OUTSTANDING FACTS
The Largest Manufacturer in the World of Brass and Iron Beds,
Iron and Wood Cribs, Has Reduced His Price Only 7 Per Cent

Rugs have been reduced from 10 to 20%; Furniture of all kinds from 10 to 20%. There is NO reduction in mirrors. Upholstered Furniture will average about 15%. The biggest reduction has been made in goods into which cotton enters into the production thereof. SKILLED LABOR still demands and receives practically the same high wages. We have mentioned these things because we want you to believe that you can buy NOW at the best price possible during the WHOLE YEAR at our for we are giving a cash reduction of NOT LESS THAN 20% on anything in our store and in many, many instances 25, 30, 33 1/3 and 50%. Remember this, though—the factories are positively not making these big reductions; we are doing it ourselves and TAKING THE LOSS. We have never tried to deceive you by any circus advertising and we never will. We mean what we say when we state we believe we can save you more money during our FEBRUARY AND MARCH CASH SALE than at any time during the year. Just think—20%, 25%, 30%, 33 1/3% and 50% off of PLAINLY MARKED REGULAR PRICES. WE ARE THE PEOPLE THAT WILL SAVE YOU MONEY! COME EARLY!

Following the receipt of an order from Louisville directing a decrease of ten per cent. in the mechanical department in Paris, as well as other divisional points on the Louisville & Nashville system, twelve employees in the Paris shops were notified of their release from their positions to take effect to-morrow. Curtailment in operating costs is given as the reason.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXAMS

This week the Paris papers will publish the names of fifty-two children who took the public school examination in Bourbon county last week. These children are preparing to enter High School at once. In May we hope to have two hundred take the examination.

Here are some figures for parents and teachers to study: Only four out of 100 who enter school in Kentucky even enter high school, and one out of 100 who enter school ever finish high school.

We hope to have 250 Bourbon county boys and girls enter high school during 1921. Now is the time to study and prepare yourself for the great opportunities ahead.

Teachers, get your children ready for the May examination.

TO-MORROW WILL BE GROUND HOG DAY

There is one day in the year when a pretty sunny day is not desired. In fact rain, snow, sleet, anything is preferable to the sun's rays. And that day this year is to-morrow, Wednesday, "Ground Hog Day."

The time-honored theory is to the effect that if the mate weather philosopher peeps out on February 2 and catches sight of his shadow, he immediately crawls back in his winter hiding place. Meanwhile the elements try their best to do their worst.

If the sun will completely hide itself and remain hidden all day to-morrow then the ground hog's shadow will be strangely missing when he emerges into the world again. And the weather for the coming six weeks will be ideal—if the groundhog theory is to be believed—and hundreds of others scout it as superstition and all that sort of thing. And there you are!

MORE OIL STOCK SUITS

A suit was filed in the Fayette Circuit Court at Lexington, Saturday by C. C. Bosworth, Receiver of the Co-operating Land & Development Co., of Paris and Lexington, against E. J. Ford, of Lexington. Bosworth claims the defendant, Ford, executed to the Co-operating Land and Development Company his promissory note for $1,000, which, it is alleged, is unpaid. The petition further alleges that the defendant is indebted to the company for $9,000 for shares of stock, and that there came into the defendant's hands $100 belonging to the company. Judgment for these amounts is asked.

GEORGIA MAN'S HEAD BEATS MULE'S KICK.

The claim of Joseph Jones, of Merrimac, to hospital attaches, in Atlanta, Ga., that he had "some bean" was borne out when his story that he had been kicked by a mule on the head and that as a result the animal was lying helpless with a broken leg was investigated and found to be true.

Jones said his way was blocked by a stray mule and he was threatening gesture to get away. It refused to stand away, meeting the assault with a well-directed kick to the mule's leg was broken. It was pronounced a head and shot. Jones

DID YOU?

Did you give him a lift? He's a brother of man.
And bearing about all the burdens he can.
Did you give him a smile? He was downcast and blue.
And the smile would have helped him to battle it through.
Did you give him your hand? He was slipping down hill;
The world, so I fancied, was using him ill.
Did you give him a word? Did you show him the road,
Or did you just let him go on with his load?
Do you know what it means to be losing the fight,
When a lit just in time might set everything right?
Do you know what it means—just a clasp of a hand,
When a man's borne about all a man ought to stand?
Did you ask what it was—why the quivering lip?
Why the half-suppressed sob, and the scalding tears drip?
Were you brother of his when the time came of need?
Did you offer to help him or didn't you heed?

Had Suffered 15 Long Years, States Joyner

Tar Heel Farmer Says It's Nothing Less Than Wonderful the Way Tanlac Has Helped Him.

It's a fact two bottles of Tanlac have done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken in fifteen years," said A. B. Joyner, a well-known farmer of Walnut Cave, N. C., R. F. D. No. 4.

"Up to the time I began taking Tanlac I had not been able to eat a square meal in fifteen years without suffering afterwards. After eating I would have an awful stuffed-up, bloated feeling, and at times my breath seemed to be almost cut off.

Sometimes I had such severe pains in the pit of my stomach that I would nearly double up, and I was so restless I could never get a night's sound sleep.

"I just tried nearly everything, but kept going from bad to worse until my farm work got to be an awful drag to me. I finally got to reading about Tanlac, and decided to try it.

"What two bottles of this medicine have done for me is nothing less than wonderful. My appetite is splendid already and I never feel a touch of indigestion. I sleep like a log every night and am feeling just fine."

Tanlac is sold in Paris at the People's Pharmacy. (adv)

KENTUCKY CLUB MEETS IN NEW YORK.

The New York Times gives this quite interesting account of the Kentuckians' Club banquet in New York City, at which Irvin S. Cobb was the speaker, and was introduced by Col. Evan Shelby, of Lexington and New York, who is the president of the club. Among the 500 present were a number from Central Kentucky, those mentioned in letters from New York being: Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shelby, Colonel Shelby, Captain and Mrs. John I. Bryan, Miss Genevieve and Anne Molloy, Josephine Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bolling, Messrs. Maurice Burroughs, Felix Renick, Paul Anderson, Jr., Carlisle Jefferson, Stanley Newman and Gordon Marsh.

Irvin S. Cobb told 600 Kentuckians of his pride in having from that State, "which," he said, "may be deprived of its joy riding with the advent of the blue laws, but will never do away with its night riding." He was the guest of honor at a dinner of the Kentuckians in the Hotel Plaza.

Mr. Cobb told a story of a man who boasted to his friends that he had been "all over the world and had seen everything." A stranger, overhearing his boast, asked him if he ever had delirium tremens. The man said he had not. "Well, then, stranger," was the reply, "you ain't never seen anything." A person who had never been to Kentucky "ain't never been nowhere and ain't never seen nothing," said Mr. Cobb.

A "THRIFTY" INAUGURATION

It is not surprising that President-elect Harding should have refused to remain silent in the face of constant streams of criticism of supposed extravagance in the coming inaugural, and to have asked the committee to "call it off."

Most of the expenses in connection with the inauguration of a President falls upon individuals. The people of the city of Washington view the affair much in the same light as other communities do their seasons of carnival. Fourth of July celebrations, and the like. And they subscribe to it in exactly the same spirit, for mixed reasons of patriotism, civic pride—and a very few for profit. So that it may be seen that the talk about the greed of Washington business men is ridiculous.

But the thing that evidently has nettled Mr. Harding is the quibbling over the expense of somewhere in the neighborhood of $100,000 for the Government's part in the celebration. The Republican committee and the Democratic committee, did not stint themselves in holding their convictions in Chicago and San Francisco, but a false cry of economy is raised when it comes to what is a nominal appropriation for grand stand seats and other necessary conveniences to make the public comfortable. Congressmen who are right on the job when they are shooting the people's millions for "ducks and drakes," play politics when it comes to carrying on a befitting inaugural.

Another wholly different side to the situation is interesting, and the fact is that visitors to Washington for the inauguration will doubtless be saved a good deal of inconvenience by the turn in events. The truth is that Washington has never recovered from the over-crowded condition occasioned by the war. "Sorry, but we can't accommodate you," is a familiar answer one gets when applying for rooms at the leading hotels.

Any kind of an inauguration means big crowds in Washington. The plain, simple kind which Senator Harding asks for will tax Washington to the limit, and these facts, at least, favor curtailing the magnitude of the event.

But after all, isn't the President-elect and the country being cheated by the politicians who for political reasons, "holler for a cheap" inauguration? The American way suggests a dignified ceremonial in keeping with what the occasion represents to the country as a whole. Such a ceremony is not likely to occur in the inauguration of the new President and Vice-President.

Chinese Massage.

Medical gymnastics were reduced to a scientific system by Taoist monks. The main point of the Chinese system of massage is the three principal attitudes, standing, sitting and lying, and three modes of breathing, through the mouth, nose and inspiration and expiration alternately through both organs. Iron balls are rolled swiftly to and fro in the hands to strengthen the muscles. To massage the stomach a wooden instrument consisting of three movable wheels is applied.

HUNT TREASURE SHIP

Another Search Started for Sunken Spanish Galleon.

Florida Adventurers Dig Ocean's Bottom for Pirate Ship and Stolen Doubloons.

Miami, Fla.—Another search for treasure-trove—a sunken Spanish galleon laden with stolen doubloons—has begun on the Atlantic coast of Florida, between Deerfield and Boca Raton.

Romance has lured this time a group of adventurous men of Deerfield and thereabouts to dig in the ocean's bottom for the buccaneers' pirate ship, which tradition says had hauled too close to the treacherous shores when pursued. A syndicate formed for the search has begun operations where the galleon is supposed to have sunk in the sands.

This is only one of the many such adventures off the south Florida coast which in the old days, before the advent of lighthouses, was the scene of many wrecks. Treasure seekers have brought in a few ancient hulls which had been deeply buried in sand, some dating back five or six centuries. But so far no ship thus recovered has yielded anything except ancient wood. One prospector is said to have spent two fortunes near Stuart before quitting the romantic game.

Fulford, 11 miles north of Miami, has been the scene of many searches. Tradition has it that a pirate ship escaped pursuers by sailing up a creek near Fulford where the crew celebrated by getting drunk.

Seminole Indians boarded the vessel and massacred the crew, except one, the story runs, and the escaped pirate succeeded in rescuing the ship's treasure chest filled with gold which he buried near by, making a diagram of the spot. Unable to return, the pirate is said to have given the diagram to a friend.

This has been used by several searching parties, equipped with every kind of a gold finder, but they failed to locate the treasure.

A native, living near by, says the spot is haunted and that even now the ghosts of the pirates howl and groan when one nears it.

He says no one is ever going to get the treasure as the ghosts "carry on something terrible when you get close to it, and there is no telling what they would do if they got their hands on it. Anything might happen in that terrible place."

20 CENTS DAY HAITIAN WAGE

But Many of the Natives Live in Houses Built of Mahogany at That.

Port au Prince.—There is no high labor market in Haiti.

The man working by the day gets one gourde, which is 20 cents, and sometimes a gourde and a half. Cooks are to be had without advertising. Most of them earn $1.50 a week, and in addition get 6 cents a day on which to feed themselves and their flock. You do not have to include carfare in the weekly wage down here.

At some points in the interior wages for cooks are even lower. Many of them live in mahogany houses, at that.

Haiti's population is estimated around 2,500,000. Ninety-seven per cent of these people are classed as illiterate, which may account for the size of the pay envelope.

North Carolina Mule Routed Dairy Invader

A terrific racket in the barn of A. Johnson, a farmer, of near Raleigh, N. C., announced that a milk thief had met his Waterloo at the business end of a farm mule.

Johnson had planted the mule in the stall of a cow which the thief had been milking at night. When the farmer reached the barn, shotgun in hand, he found a battered milk pail, a wrecked milking stool, a hat, a self-satisfied mule, but no thief.

WARNINGS FOR NIGHT TRAFFIC

Philadelphia to Install System of Flash-light Danger Signals at Street Intersections.

Philadelphia.—Flashlight danger signals are to be placed at street intersections in this city as additional safeguards against night accidents, it was announced by the electrical bureau.

Red and green lenses with powerful incandescent lamps inclosed in an iron case and suspended from poles or from extended arms are to be used. The system will be so arranged that the red and green will flash alternately at intervals of a few seconds. They will be placed so that they may be observed from all traffic directions and at considerable distances.

The signals are intended only as a warning to drivers that they are approaching a dangerous intersection.

Public Baths for Dogs in Germany. Berlin.—Public baths for dogs are a feature of the municipal arrangements at Hamburg, Germany. There are heated cages for drying the dogs after bathing. Many dogs call unattended at regular hours every week, scratch at the door, and have their bath.

APPEAL FOR CHINESE FAMINE SUFFERERS

From every pulpit in Kentucky, an appeal will be made Sunday, February 6, for funds to save the inhabitants of those great Chinese provinces where the crop failure is complete and 40,000,000 persons face starvation. The Rev. Dr. E. Y. Mullins, chairman of the China Famine Fund in Kentucky, has received replies from the ministers of all denominations in the State, indicating that the answer to his appeal for the observance of Sunday, February 6, as China Relief Sunday, will be nearly 100 per cent.

The active campaign for funds will open about the 15 of February. The appointment of Dr. Mullins by President Wilson having been preliminary to the drive, so that he could perfect an organization, Joseph Burge has been appointed treasurer for the State and Chairman in each county will be named this week. The State Executive Committee is now being made up and will be composed of seven or nine men.

As pointed out in the President's proclamation, the Chinese people look to America as their benefactor. In view of the political situation in the Orient, many Kentucky ministers who have served as missionaries both in China and Japan, say the relief afforded to the Chinese at this time will do much to strengthen the spirit of alliance between China and America.

WORLD SECRETS BEING SOUGHT

Sixteen Exploration Expeditions Are Now in Progress or in Contemplation.

MANY PROBLEMS TO BE SOLVED

Most Important Enterprise Is British Antarctic Expedition Headed by Commander John Lachlan Cope—Amundsen Is Trying for North Pole.

New York.—Sixteen exploration expeditions are now in progress or in contemplation after four years of inactivity in this line of scientific research due to the great war. Most of these enterprises have been undertaken or projected since the armistice, and they recall the fact that mother earth still has important biological, zoological, geological, ethnological and meteorological problems to be solved.

One of the most important of these enterprises is the British Antarctic expedition, headed by Commander John Lachlan Cope, F. R. G. S., formerly of the British navy. It is financed for $750,000, includes five ships, 125 men, several airplanes and extensive wireless apparatus. The undertaking is to require five years and its objects are the circumnavigation of the Antarctic sea, a dash to the south pole, the locating of new whaling grounds and the discovery of supposedly rich gold, silver, coal and ruby fields.

Capt. Roald Amundsen, who discovered the south pole in 1911, left Nome, Alaska, last August in an attempt to reach the north pole. His ship, the Maud, had already spent nineteen months in the Arctic, north of Asia and Europe, and had successfully made the northeast passage. He expected the Maud to be locked in the ice pack and to drift toward the pole when the Arctic winter ended. In negotiating his way to Nome he was frequently compelled to blast a path through the ice.

Captain Amundsen was last heard of off East Cape, about 170 miles northwest of Nome in the Bering strait. The explorer, on account of high wages and scarcity of men, was handicapped by lack of help, his only companions being three sailors and an Eskimo cook.

Other Prospects on Foot.

The other interesting expeditions projected or now under way are as follows:

Siberia—Capt. Axel Landmark and Capt. John Vatney, in a 50-foot power boat are on a 4,000-mile voyage to Kolyma river, using a primitive chart made in 1878 by Nordenskjold, a Swedish explorer on his voyage from Norway to Japan via the Arctic ocean.

Greenland—Knud Rasmussen, Danish explorer, who returned from the east coast late in 1919, after studying Eskimo tribes, is preparing for another expedition of five years' duration. Lange Koch, another Dane, is planning a scientific survey of North Greenland, his main purpose being to establish Danish sovereignty in that territory.

Africa—Four expeditions are in progress, namely, the Mackie ethnological expedition to Central Africa for the purpose of studying the Bahima, one of the chief pastoral tribes of Ankole, a district west of Uganda; the British natural history of museum expeditions to the west coast and the Jeb-Maria mountains; the duke of Abruzzi's effort to find the sources of the Webi Shebell river, which flows from Abyssinia through Italian Somaliland into the Indian ocean, and the entomological tour of the Belgian Congo, by T. A. Barns, who explored the Ituri and Semliki forests, finding a strange race of pigmy savages, as well as gathering a wonderful collection of moths and butterflies.

Baffin Land—Donald P. MacMillan, who was with Admiral Peary plans to start next year to explore one of the richest fields in the far north. He expects to establish a camp 700 miles south of Etah in Northwest Greenland, where his Crocker Land expedition passed four winters. He will attempt to circumnavigate Baffin Land and penetrate 1,500 miles of its western coast.

Nova Zembla—Dr. Olaf Holtehdahl of Christiania university is organizing a northwestern natural science and geological expedition to this country and plans to start next summer.

Mexico—Prof. Emelio Oddone, a famous Neapolitan seismologist, representing the Italian government, is now studying the earthquake situation in Mexico by means of his "inerviameter," an invention by which he is able to measure both motion and energy.

Will Explore Amazon.

The Amazon—Exploration of this great river to be undertaken by a large party of American scientists, headed by Dr. Henry H. Rusby of Columbia university. The party expects to leave early in January and to traverse more than 1,000 miles of almost virgin land in the upper reaches of the river basin. Dr. Rusby is to be accompanied by Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford, Jr. university and Dr. Carl H. Engemann of the University of Indiana, who are to study fish and reptiles. Dr. Ruthven of the University of Michigan, who is to study frogs, and Dr. Edward Kromers of the University of Wisconsin, and Prof. A. H. Gill of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who will investigate seed and volatile oils.

Ecuador and Peru—Collections of flora and fauna are now being gathered for the American Museum of Natural History in New York by Capt. Harold E. Anthony and George K. Cherrie.

Pacific Islands—Solution of the origin of the Polynesian race is one of the objects of a survey of the Pacific Islands planned at a recent conference of scientists at Honolulu under the auspices of the Pan-Pacific Union, representing the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, Hawaii, the Philippines and Japan. An expedition will be sent to the South seas for this purpose by Yale, Harvard and other institutions.

China and Tibet—The third expedition, backed by a fund of $250,000, is soon to start from Central Asia under the leadership of Roy Chapman Andrews, associate curator of mammals in the American Museum of Natural History, New York. The Chinese government is expected to co-operate with this enterprise.

JOIN HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

Committees of Women Formed in Great Britain and America to Promote Friendly Relations.

London.—With the object of promoting closer friendly intercourse between British and American women, a women's committee of the English-speaking union has been formed under the presidency of Viscountess Bryce, wife of the one-time ambassador to the United States.

Arrangements are being made to provide hospitality and entertainment for American women visiting England and to co-operate with corresponding committees in the United States.

The president for the United States of the English-speaking union is Mrs. William H. Taft. The new women's committee has among its members Lady Violet Astor, Viscountess Gladstone, the countess of Kerry, the countess of Reading and a lot of other women prominent in London society.

TRIES SABOTAGE IN INDIA

Labor Is Said to Have Adopted Tactics to Gain Ends in Various Parts of Country.

Calcutta.—Indian labor for the last two months has been adopting sabotage tactics to gain its ends in various parts of the country.

A notable example is one in Madras, where the provincial government has just issued a communique in reference to the railway disaster last month, where 14 people were killed and 21 injured. The disaster, in the opinion of the government, is the seventh out of eight cases of sabotage, committed between August 14 and October 21.

The strike of stevedores in this city has held up in port 111 ocean-going steamers, instead of the normal 50 usually here. The accumulation of cargoes amounts to thousands of tons, and the glut is accentuated by the importers' financial difficulties, due to fall in the exchange.

Dog Saves Life of Baby Hanging From Bridge

La Salle, Colo.—Teddy is only a common dog, boasting neither beauty nor blue blood, and the possessor of only three good legs, but he saved the life of his constant companion, a two-year-old boy. The dog's persistent barking attracted the mother's attention, and she went to investigate.

About 100 yards from the house runs the Milton canal. The baby had undertaken to cross a little foot-bridge and lost his balance. But in falling, his dress had caught on the bridge in such manner that it held and strangled him. First aid methods were applied, and in a few hours he was able to rejoin his faithful friend.

PHILADELPHIA HAS BIG YEAR

Foreign Trade in 1920 Beats All of Port's Former Records, Say Commissioners.

Philadelphia.—All foreign trade records here were surpassed in 1920, according to commissioners of the port.

Combined values of imports and exports totaled $742,224,997, an increase over the previous record year of 1919 of $65,990,391.

A gain of $126,303,656 was shown in the value of imports over the previous year. Exports fell off $60,343,265.

A feature of the export trade was the large quantity of coal shipped to foreign countries during 1920, when 2,490,867 tons of bituminous and 120,746 tons of anthracite coal was shipped, compared with 1,007,300 tons of bituminous and 45,189 tons of anthracite in 1919.

Button Causes Girl's Death.

Danville, Ill.—Jane Holmes, thirteen years old, is dead, following the accidental entrance of a cloak button into her throat. She placed the button in her mouth and it slipped into her throat. Surgeons pushed it into her stomach, and it was ejected by vomiting. There was an injury to the throat passages, which developed blood poisoning, and death resulted.

THAT BURDEN OF RESPONSIBILITY

Much wishwash is spouted nowadays about the terrific responsibility under which high-salaried men stagger, strive and struggle through the heat and stress of their work. "If anything goes wrong," says the ten-thousand-a-year magnate, "I'm to blame. The mass of a thousand details rests on my competent shoulder. I have to be a Hercules to get away with it. I'm the boss! The underlings only have to go ahead and do their daily stunts. But I! Me! I've got to see that the dividends come rolling in. No wonder they pay me big money. They know the sense of responsibility that engulfs me is liable to shorten my life by ten years."

But there is another side to the story. In the first place, the "underling" tiptoes along with the knowledge that, if the boss is criticized, the boss is going to make a goat out of someone under him. Why not? He's human! And every conscientious man, whether he's paid a thousand a month or twenty a week, feels the responsibility of doing well what he has to do. The human mind is capable of only just so much worry—and the boss can't worry any more fatally than the "underling."

Furthermore, the subordinate has a whole set of responsibility senses to which the magnate is, as a rule, a stranger. It is the underling who is attacked by the most harassing responsibility yet by man, that of making a slim pay envelope stretch effectively over a large area of expenses. The debt responsibility is enough to break the back of any Hercules, who ever heaved a burden. Add to that another variant of the sense of responsibility: that is, the worry of many a low-salaried man because he sees no way up for him. There is the most heart-breaking responsibility imaginable. The man who has a family to support and a job from which he expects no substantial increase in pay is deprived of the one antidote for "responsibility," namely, hope.

Ancient Signs Asked Votes.

The use of chalked instead of printed notices for advertisement and political propaganda has ancient precedent, as the "graffiti" of Pompeii attest. There we find in red letters painted on the walls that "the barbers wish to have Trebius as aedile" or that "the fruit sellers wish one centus Priscus for the duumvirate."

HOTEL KEEPERS MUST REMIT FEE.

The Bureau of Food, Drugs and Hotels of the State Board of Health called attention in a statement issued in Louisville this week to the fact that the inspection fee which the law requires to be paid by each hotel, boarding and rooming house in Kentucky now is due and must be paid immediately to avoid prosecution.

As this fee is paid receipts are issued by the Bureau to show that hotel keepers and the proprietors of boarding and rooming houses and restaurants have complied with the law, and later when the Bureau's representatives have made their visits of inspection the certificates contemplated by the statute will be issued. These certificates are valid December 31, of this year.

There is no disposition in the State to attempt to evade payment of this inspection fee, according to Miss S. H. Vance, director of the Bureau of Food, Drugs and Hotels, but on account of the general ignorance throughout the State of the requirements of the law many hotel keepers and proprietors of boarding and rooming houses and restaurants have laid themselves liable to the penalty of being prosecuted by the various County Attorneys, this prosecution being provided for by the statute.

In reply to the 3,000 notices sent out by the Bureau at the beginning of the year calling attention to the fact that this fee was due, replies have been received from about 1,000 persons. The other 2,000 recipients of the notice must give them their attention immediately to avoid prosecution.

Marriage is like a furnace. When two people marry without love, then life becomes a furnace. Instead of a sacrament, it becomes a sacrifice or a sacrifice. Jealousy, hatred, revenge feed its flames until it either destroys or purifies. The great William D. Taylor production of "The Furnace" is one of the most tremendous presentations of this question yet conceived on the screen. You will be profoundly moved by the struggle of the people in "The Furnace" for happiness and love. Here is a picture which for drama, power, and dazzling scenic effects, has never been surpassed. She is also survived by five grandchildren, the children of Mrs. Cantrill, and by two sisters, Mrs. C. Adams and Miss Mollie Owens, of Winchester.

O'BRIEN.

—A beautiful life came to an earthly close in Lexington, Friday afternoon, when Miss Julia O'Brien, of Paris, who had been a patient for several weeks at St. Joseph's Hospital, in that city, fell into the sleep that knows no waking. At her bedside when the end came were her brothers, James M. O'Brien, of Paris, and Harry O'Brien, of New York City. Miss O'Brien had been in declining health for several months, due to a complication of diseases.

Miss O'Brien was a native of Paris, where her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Brien, resided to the time of their deaths. She received her education in the schools of Paris, and grew up into a lovely womanhood, esteemed and beloved by all who knew her. She was a woman of the highest Christian character, talented and accomplished, possessed of a gentle disposition and spirit which endeared her to everyone. For several years she was a member of the Paris High School faculty. She possessed a voice of remarkable sweetness and power, and was always in the forefront in the more important musical programs rendered in the musical organizations of the city, and in her church, where she devoted her talents to the rebuilding of the choir. Since the death of her parents Miss O'Brien had made her home in Paris with her brother, James O'Brien, and between brother and sister there existed a bond of love truly remarkable and enduring. Her cheerful, beautiful life, her devotion to her brothers and friends, her kindness to everyone, will linger long as a fragrant memory in the home which her presence brightened and which death has now darkened. Though her spirit has departed the impress of her gentle life is left as a benediction and will remain with all as a lasting treasure.

Miss O'Brien is survived by two brothers, James M. O'Brien, of Paris, Harry O'Brien, of New York, and one sister, Mrs. Tobie O'Brien Langan, of California.

The body was brought to Paris to the home of her lifelong and devoted friend, Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland, on Main street. The funeral was held at the Church of The Annunciation, at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, with services conducted by the pastor, Rev. Father Thomas Coleman. The burial followed on the family lot in the Catholic Cemetery. The pallbearers were: William B. Ardery, Emmett M. Dickson, William Grannan, John R. Roche, Leo Keller and Clay Sutherland.

Clustered about the flowers that covered her last resting place, mingling with the silence that shrouds the revered spot, and quivering amidst the gloom of the grave, the holiest memories speak in tones that fill the ear and thrill the sorrowing heart. All that there was of life that has faded into the night of endless sleep; its lights and its shadows; its sweetness and its nobility; its power and its purity, pass before us like a rapidly moving panorama. Under such an influence we pause to consider the loss to those who loved her and the loss to the community.

"All who are living, soon or late, Must pass within the Garden gate; Must kneel alone in darkness there And battle with some fierce despair. God pity those who cannot say, 'Not mine, but thine,' who only pray 'Let this cup pass,' and cannot see The purpose in Gethsemane."
